THUMPING HEADACHES

Many Barre Women Have Them, But Few Know the Real Cause.

Dull, thumping headaches, Sick, prostrating headaches, Dizziness, whirling, blind headaches—Point to disorders of the kidneys. Tell of uric poisons in the blood. Nerveless may ease the pain. But won't cure the cause. Doan's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys. Remove uric poisons, purify the blood. Banish headaches, backache, urinary ills. Here's Barre testimony to prove it. Mrs. Annie Gibbs, of 21 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "For over a year I had more or less backache, brought on, I think, by a disordered condition of the kidneys. I brought too much strain on the muscles of my back, sharp pains would take me, and I also suffered from headaches and spells of dizziness. When I overworked or caught cold it always made the trouble worse. I read a good deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and went to E. A. Doan's drug store for a box. Before I had taken all the pills in this one box my back was relieved, and when I had finished a second box the pains had ceased and I felt better in every way. I am glad to recommend such a reliable remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be in my case."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BABY 2 HOURS OLD USES PHONE.

Held Up to Receiver, He Proves His Existence to Grandparents Miles Away.

Meredith, N. H., Aug. 21.—Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsley of Wolfboro were made happy Saturday by the arrival of a nine pound boy.

The news was telephoned to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mansfield, parents of Mrs. Parsley, at Meredith.

To make the message more convincing the baby, two hours after his birth, was held up to the telephone and its voice came to its grandparents from the other side of Lake Winnepesaukee.

NOTICE TO VOTERS OF BARRE TOWN.

Notice is hereby given that agreeable to act No. 2 of the laws of 1904 we have established additional polling places in this town as follows: At Unity temple in South Barre, and at Miles' hall in Graniteville, the central polling place being at East Barre as heretofore. We have subdivided the voting list and all voters will be obliged to vote at the polling place at which their names are registered. We have placed the names of voters on the list where we thought they could most conveniently vote, but it is the duty of everyone to ascertain on which list their name appears. The board of civil authority will meet to revise said voting lists as follows: At South Barre schoolhouse Saturday, Aug. 25th at 7 o'clock p. m.; at town clerk's office, Graniteville, Saturday, Aug. 25th, at 7 o'clock p. m.; and the final meeting will be held at East Barre on Wednesday, Aug. 29th, 1906, at 7 o'clock p. m. Persons whose names do not appear on said lists after being completed on the last mentioned date will be debarred from voting on Sept. 1st.

The End of the World of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They cured me of general debility." Sure cure for all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, blood diseases, headache, dizziness and weakness or loss of vitality. Price 50c. Guaranteed by Red Cross Pharmacy.

THE WRITERS.

George Bernard Shaw will shortly invade the land which he rebuked for its "Comstockery." He expects to see the first production of his new play, "Caesar and Cleopatra," in America in New York in October.

George Moore, the novelist, who has been writing for the last thirty years, is now fifty-four. He is of Scotch-Irish blood and is the squire of Moore Hall, County Mayo. He is said to own 12,500 acres in that Irish county.

Dr. S. Weir Mitchell in writing trusts but little to dictation, writing nearly all he has to say, then submitting the manuscript for a typewritten copy. Four or five clean copies are nothing unusual in the preparation of a manuscript.

An effort will be made in Rome to purchase the house in which Keats, the poet, died and to establish therein a permanent memorial not only to Keats himself, but of Shelley, whose dust lies buried only a stone's throw away from his brother poet's grave.

To Test Butter.

To test the purity of butter smear a little on a piece of clean white paper, roll up the paper and burn it. If the butter is pure the smell of the burning paper will not prove unpleasant, but if the butter is not pure a distinct odor of tallow is noticeable.

Paper Making Machines.

Many of the paper making machines of the present day are over 100 feet long and require a building to themselves.

A Natural Laxative

Inward cleansing is as necessary as outward bathing. To keep the bowels free and regular is of even greater importance than to keep the skin-pores from becoming clogged. The neglect of either invites disease. Everyone needs a natural laxative occasionally, to free the bowels of accumulated impurities. For this purpose take the greatest boon ever offered to those who suffer from the ills that follow constipation. For over fifty years Beecham's Pills have been famous as a Stomach corrective, a Liver regulator and Bowel laxative. They never grip nor cause pain. Powerful purgatives are dangerous. Avoid them. Use Beecham's Pills. They give relief without doing violence to any organ. Their action is in harmony with physical laws. Take them regularly and the necessity for their use becomes less frequent. They are a natural laxative and a positive cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache and Dyspepsia.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

GROWTH OF OUR EXPORTS.

Three Grades of Goods of Which More Than $100,000,000 Were Sent Abroad.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The fact that the exports of domestic merchandise from the United States have doubled in the last ten years, coupled with the constant demand for information as to the articles in which that growth occurred, has led the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor to prepare a special table showing in the order of magnitude the principal factors in the export trade of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906.

The analysis shows that three classes (raw cotton, provision and iron and steel manufactures) had attained in 1906 each a total exportation of more than $100,000,000 while in 1896 only two classes (cotton and provisions) were entitled to that distinction. In 1906 the articles which showed each an exportation of between $50,000,000 and $100,000,000 were five—copper manufactures, refined mineral oil, corn, flour, and manufactures of cotton. A decade earlier, in 1896, only two items fell into this group—refined mineral oil and flour.

In the fiscal year just ended seventeen articles or classes of articles showed each an export value of from $10,000,000 to $42,900,000—cattle, leather and products thereof, iron manufactures, tobacco, lace, wheat, agricultural implements, oil cake, bituminous coal, chemicals, cats, vegetable oils, timber, fruits and nuts, wood manufactures, carriages, scientific instruments and spirits of turpentine; while in 1896 there were only nine articles entitled to place in this class—iron and steel, corn, wheat, cattle, tobacco, cotton manufactures, copper manufactures and boards.

A more detailed analysis of the table discloses some marked changes in the relative standing of the thirty-seven classes of exports. Cotton, for example, in 1906, ranked fourth in the exportation of upward of $5,000,000 in the year just ended. Raw cotton still occupies first rank and provisions second. Iron and steel manufactures have taken third place, and refined mineral oil has dropped from third place in 1896 to fifth place in 1906. Copper manufactures also show a notable growth, having advanced from eleventh place in 1896 to fourth place in 1906. While flour shows an increase of $7,000,000 in the decade, its relative position among the leading articles of exportation has changed from fourth in 1896 to seventh in 1906, and the value of its exports from $16,275,000 a decade ago to nearly $53,000,000 in the year just ended.

Agricultural implements exported are five times as great in value as in 1896, and this large increase has advanced the position of that class from twenty-third in 1896 to fourteenth in 1906. Exports of cats, which occupied thirty-first rank in 1896, quadrupled during the decade, and advanced to eighteenth place last year.

Cotton manufactures, while still small in comparison with those of Great Britain, Germany and France, especially in view of our great supply of raw cotton, have shown some improvement, since 1896, their position among our exportations having advanced from twelfth in 1896 to eighth in 1906, and the value of their exports from $16,275,000 a decade ago to nearly $53,000,000 in the year just ended.

RULES FOR MOTORISTS.

Considerate Driving League of England Preaches the Gospel of Safe Motoring.

Over in England the Considerate Driving League preaches the gospel of safety in motoring:

Drive slowly:

Through town and villages or any crowded traffic.

When approaching cross roads or turning corners.

When passing schools, cottages or churches.

On dusty or muddy roads when passing cyclists or pedestrians.

When entering a main road from a side road.

When passing cars, sheep, dogs, etc., on the road.

Stop:

When an accident of any kind happens, whether your fault or not. Render all assistance in your power, and, as a safeguard against future proceedings, ascertain the names of a few witnesses of the affair.

When you see any likelihood of a horse making a fool of himself. If necessary, do this even before the driver of the animal holds up a warning hand or even begins to swear at you.

Always remember:

That other road users may do the wrong thing at the unexpected moment, i. e., a nervous driver may pull the wrong rein, or a pedestrian hesitate and try several courses before finally choosing the worst one of them all.

It is your business, not the other man's, to avoid danger.

The road is free for all and owned by none.

There be courteous and considerate, and always drive like a gentleman.

The Fly.

The fly, as large as he will ever be, crawls out of the smooth brown chrysalis, uncumbers his draggled wings, and from that moment till his death changes in nowise. It is only in the original state, the ugly maggot state, that the fly grows.

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS OF DRUNKS

The Fat Minor Brothers Give Evaporator Policemen a Hard Problem to Solve.

Weiden Minor, weighing 300 pounds, and his brother, L. C. Minor, who tips the beam at 210, were among the prisoners brought into Justice Boyer's court at Evanston, Ill. The door creaked as the ponderous brothers pushed their bulky bodies through the door sideways and lumbered up before the bar of justice.

Both men had been arrested while deeply intoxicated and snoring uproariously in a ditch at Darrow avenue and Lyons street. The police of Evanston had their troubles getting the huge twain to the station. Policeman Oscar Anderson, who discovered the dreaming giants, pondered five minutes whether to call a derrick or the patrol wagon. He finally sent in a call for the wagon and all the policemen on reserve at the station, with a request that ropes and tackles and a few strong planks and skids be also sent along.

When the officers arrived efforts were made to get the Minors on their feet. But the attempts were futile.

THEY "SKIDDOED" THEM INTO THE PATROL WAGON.

as the major part of the inebriates resisted the strength of the blue-coats and remained on the ground.

Then the officers rigged up a gang plank, pushed rollers under the bodies of the men and skidded them into the patrol wagon.

When the Minors came into court they were still unsteady upon their legs, and Justice Boyer told them to sit down.

"There is not a chair in the office big enough or strong enough for either of them," replied the clerk.

His honor then asked the robust pair what they had to say. Both pleaded guilty.

"It must have taken an awful quantity of liquor to get you two drunk," commented the court.

Then he fined them $3 each.

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

The rage for ribbons amounts almost to a craze.

Linen coats of the greatest elegance are made for separate wear over sheer lingerie frocks and even over silks and laces.

For cool or cloudy days skirts of denim, colored crasses or mohair have taken the place of heavy wool skirts, and not infrequently there is a waist to match.

In the class of easily laundered materials gingham figures conspicuously—that is, French makes—and there are very attractive patterns this year, especially among the blacks and whites.

It is pleasant to note that satin foulard is again popular, for no other material can take its place for an all around frock. None other lends itself quite so adaptably to the frock which is suitable for any and all occasions.—New York Post.

GERMAN GLEANINGS.

To the amazement of Berliners a corner of the royal palace has been given over to a cigar dealer.

The German government last year paid $111,800,000 as benefits under the compulsory workmen's insurance law.

Determined to commit suicide, a man at Bochum, Germany, severed one of his veins, poured petroleum over his clothes and set it alight, and then jumped from a window of the third story of the factory where he was employed.

Germany's revision of its railway tariff involves a multiplication of tickets. It is said that a traveler with a small family going from Mulhausen to Basel—not a long journey by any means—is furnished with sixty tickets, in addition to numerous luggage checks for his impediments!

Improved.

"Do you think the automobile has come to stay?"

"No, sir. I used to think so when it was necessary for me to walk home about every time I ventured out, but I am now convinced that it has come to go."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Strong Men.

Miss Touriste—You have some strong and rugged types of manhood out in this western country, haven't you?

Stage Driver—Yass, miss, we hev men out here that don't think it's outthin' to hold up a railroad train.—Ohio State Journal.
